Dear Todd:

A well deserved thank you for the effort and results your company demonstrated in completing our new office build out. From the initial project meeting to the final punch list items, Woodrow handle our needs in a timely and professional manner.

I am especially appreciative to Bill and Ken for their attention to the smallest of details and the prompt handling of issues. Their leadership kept the project on schedule and within budget.

Please feel free to direct any potential customer to my attention for a recommendation.

Best wishes to you and your team,

Michael L. Denzel
